

Bits and Pieces of The Second War with England

Patricia A Regan

Pat is a native of Jefferson County New York having been born in Sackets Harbor and has been studying and working with both Genealogy and History since her early teens. She contributes her interest in this to her Mother and Stepfather who were active Historians in Lewis County New York. Pat is an active Alumni of SUNY Canton New York and Alpha Pi Nu Epsilon Sorority and furthering her Education studying Business Management and History at University College Syracuse New York and attended many Seminars, classes and Courses on Genealogy and History.

Pat Retired as a Personal and Commercial Property, Casualty, Marine Underwriter and Marketing Representative. After retiring she was Owner/Operator of a Family Restaurant in Syracuse New York. Pat previously taught Genealogical courses for 12 years and lectured throughout Florida for the LDS Family History Center. She also co-authored a book with her cousin on the William Tanner Family of Kingstown Rhode Island. Pat is a member of numerous Genealogical and Historical Societies throughout the US and Canada including the New York Genealogical Society, The New England Historic & Genealogical Society, Ontario Genealogical Society and the Martin County Florida Genealogical Society. Pat is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, American Legion Auxiliary, VFW and Am. Vets Auxiliaries where she has served in various capacities. Pat presently Administers a number of Genealogical and Historical websites and operates "As your Tree Grows" specializing in documenting Lineage work for various Societies such as DAR, UEL, War of 1812, Civil War, French and Indian Wars and other societies.